

Special Events/Short Term Opportunities:

RSVP Computer Class Assistant! Anyone who has taken an RSVP Power Up! Class knows how helpful it was to have an assistant teacher around to ask questions of when you needed help. Please return the favor by volunteering to assist lead teachers in the computer classes scheduled for Oct and Nov. You are needed! Thank you for your support of the Power Up! Classes, teachers and students.

It is almost time for the Tulsa State Fair! If you think you may want to volunteer in one of the many areas they offer to volunteers, then attend a Volunteer Sign Up on one of these dates: Sept 11-10am, Sept 13-6pm. Location is the Culinary Training Ctr at 3902 E. 15th St. (Enter at Gate 5 off 15th Street). There are 19 different areas for volunteers, so lots of variety!

Broken Arrow PAC has upcoming events for which they need ushers. If you would like to help at any of these events, let me know: Sept. 21st, 7:00pm BA Talent Show, Sept. 28th, 7:00pm Mr. BA, Sept 23rd, 7:30pm Harry James Orchestra, Oct 21st, 7:30p Amy Grant, Nov 18-20, 7:30p BAHS Drama Fall Play, Dec 4th, 2:00p "A Time For Christmas", Dec 19, 7:30p David Phelps (ushers need to arrive 1 hour ahead of the show time and wear black slacks/skirt and a white top/blouse)

The Tulsa Garden Center's "Wine & Roses" is Friday, Sept. 24th at 2435 S. Peoria. This is an outdoor fundraising event that includes a night of sampling wine and good food. Volunteers are needed in many areas on that day from volunteering in hospitality, to parking duty, to check in. If you are interested, contact Gary Ann by replying to this email or calling 280-8656.

Kids World International Festival is Nov. 4-6 at the Exchange Center at Expo Square. Hundreds of volunteers make this festival happen so sign up today to help in one of these areas: restore decorations (Sept & Oct), Set up event (Nov. 3rd), Info Desk, Hospitality Room, International Booths, Ticket Sales, Volunteer Check In.....as you can see, just about every area is open for volunteers! Shifts are about 3 hours each.

Ongoing Opportunities

RSVP Grandfriends have begun a new school year! If you love children and would like to spend a few hours a week in an Early Learning Classroom (3 & 4 year olds) assisting the teacher, you are needed! You may read a story, do a craft or simply help a child with his/her ABC's. This is a most rewarding way to serve. All training is provided and there are 14 locations throughout Tulsa.

RSVP Driver needed on Tuesday mornings beginning in September, from approx. 8:30am – 10:30am. You must have a good driving record and we will have you drive the RSVP van to deliver mailing projects and handcrafted items to local hospitals and agencies!

The Tulsa Garden Center has a lovely Gift Shop and it is open Tuesday – Saturday, 9am – 4pm. They offer 2 volunteer shifts per day, 9am-12pm and 1pm-4pm. Right now they are trying to find new volunteers so they will have two for each shift. The volunteers put out merchandise, visit with customers and complete sales transactions. They also have a book room attached to the shop. The pace is slower, but you will make friends with the other volunteers and enjoy your beautiful surroundings.

Broken Arrow Police Dept. has volunteer desk receptionist that direct people in the building and answer questions that visitors may have. If you would like to serve 4 hours a week in this service, they need you any weekday, 8am-Noon, Noon-4pm or 4pm-8pm. Background check is required. Location is 2302 S. First Place.

St. Francis Hospital South has a volunteer opening in the Emergency Room on Thursdays either 9am -1pm or 1pm -5pm. They have benefits for all volunteers and all training is provided.

Share your heart and change the life of a child with special needs! The Little Light House at 36th and Yale has a critical need for volunteers this school year. You may choose to read to kids in a classroom, help as a lunchtime volunteer or be a classroom volunteer. All training and orientation provided and the rewards are many.
